About Teach For Senegal:

Teach For Senegal is a small local nonprofit organization operating within Senegal and led by Senegalese individuals. Our mission is to reimagine education in Senegal through our fellowship program and Montessori training. We work directly with rural and indigenous communities in northern Senegal, aiming to recruit, train, and place young leaders in underserved classrooms for a minimum of two years. Our focus is on providing quality education and transformative learning experiences to every child in Senegal.

Position: Program Manager

Location: Remote within Senegal with frequent travel and community visits

Type: Full-time

Role and Responsibilities:

As the Program Manager for Teach For Senegal, you will play a crucial role in shaping the educational landscape of the country by managing and executing on-the-ground initiatives, fostering community relationships, and cultivating partnerships. You will be responsible for a wide range of tasks, including:

1. Regional Leadership: Lead the implementation of programmatic activities, ensuring alignment with the organization's goals and vision. Coordinate closely with regional teams to drive the successful execution of the Teach For Senegal mission.
2. Fellow Support: Provide mentorship, guidance, and support to current fellows, helping them navigate challenges and maximize their impact in the classroom. Foster a collaborative and empowering environment for fellow development.
3. Community Engagement: Build and maintain strong relationships with local communities, understanding their needs and collaborating to create impactful educational solutions. Regularly visit schools and communities to ensure the effectiveness of the program and gather insights for improvement.
4. Event Coordination: Plan and execute various events, including workshops, training sessions, and community gatherings. These events will contribute to building a sense of belonging among program participants and stakeholders.
5. Partnership Development: Identify and establish partnerships with private organizations, NGOs, and government entities that align with Teach For Senegal's mission. Collaborate with these partners to enhance the organization's impact and reach.
6. Alumni Engagement: Provide ongoing support to Teach For Senegal alumni, helping them transition into their careers while maintaining a strong connection to the organization's network and resources.
7. Reporting and Analysis: Collect and analyze data related to program effectiveness, participant outcomes, and community feedback. Use insights to drive continuous improvement and inform strategic decision-making.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in education, social sciences, business, or a related field (Master's degree preferred).
- Proven experience in program management, community engagement, event coordination, and partnership development.
- Strong understanding of the education landscape in Senegal, including challenges and opportunities.
- Excellent communication skills in both English and French, with the ability to convey ideas clearly and persuasively.
- Demonstrated ability to build and maintain relationships with diverse stakeholders, including community members, educators, partners, and donors.
- Entrepreneurial mindset with the ability to work independently and take initiative.
- Flexibility to travel frequently within Senegal for on-the-ground activities and events.
- Passion for education, social impact, and empowering underserved communities.

Compensation:

The salary for the Program Manager position at Teach For Senegal is competitive and will be determined based on the candidate's experience and qualifications. The final salary offer will be commensurate with the selected candidate's skills, relevant experience, and demonstrated impact.

Reporting Structure:

The Program Manager will report directly to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Teach For Senegal. In this pivotal role, the Program Manager will work closely with the CEO to drive the organization's mission and objectives forward. The CEO will provide guidance, support, and strategic direction, while also fostering an environment of collaboration and innovation.
